Recommendation for Justin Billeci

To whom it may concern,

It is with my greatest pleasure to strongly recommend Justin for employment in the web development and design industry.

I have known Justin for about two years and acted as his direct supervisor at Kill Your Competition. During this time, I was extremely impressed by his website designs, ability to adapt and learn new tech stacks and his thorough problem solving/debugging skills. Justin consistently demonstrated a high level of dedication and expertise, making him an extremely valuable asset to our team.

Something that really stood out to me was when Justin sacrificed his weekend to help complete a major healthcare project by its dedicated launch time. Justin was able to ensure all web pages were free from grammatical and spelling errors, had all the necessary accessibility modifications implemented, and tested the website for bugs, speed and functionality. The dedication he showed for this individual job led to three additional projects from the same client.

Beyond his technical skills, Justin is a stellar team member who brings a positive attitude to work everyday. He is the most reliable, proactive, and trustworthy employee I had the pleasure to work with and he is always willing to go the extra mile to make sure every job was done to perfection.

Unfortunately, as a consequence of our pursuit for global missions and pastoral ministry, we had to narrow down our client list to allow for the extra time in seminary. I have no doubt that Justin will bring the same level of excellence to your organization as he has to ours.

Justin has earned my highest possible recommendation. Please feel free to contact me at 407.808.3767 or Jason@KillYourCompetition.today if you would like to discuss his qualifications further.

Sincerely,
